Aretha Franklin was born in Memphis, Tennessee, in 1942. Her father was a Baptist minister and her mother was a gospel singer. Aretha started singing in church at a young age, and she quickly developed a powerful voice. When she was 14 years old, she signed a record deal with Columbia Records.

Aretha's first album, Songs of Faith, was released in 1956. The album was a critical and commercial success, and it helped to launch Aretha's career. In 1967, she signed with Atlantic Records, and she began to release a series of hit songs, including "Respect," "Chain of Fools," and "Think."

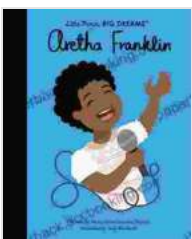

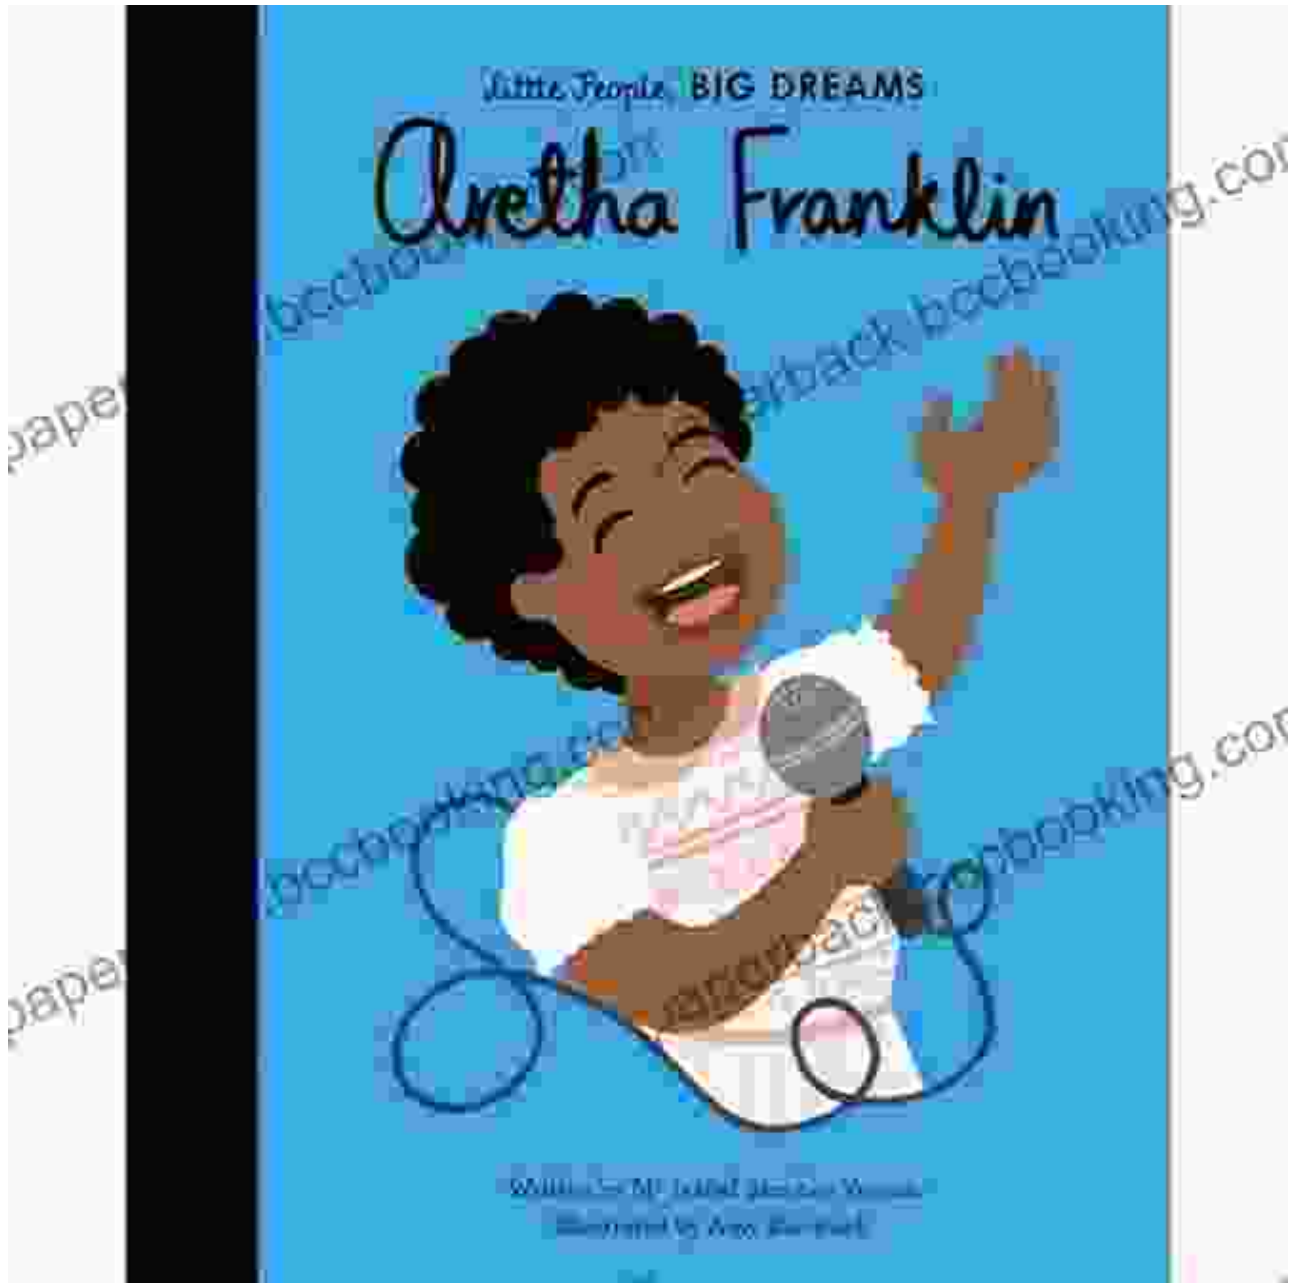

Aretha Franklin became one of the most successful singers of all time. She won 18 Grammy Awards, and she was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1987. She is considered one of the greatest singers of all time, and her music continues to inspire people around the world.
