From Humble Beginnings

Tom Moore was born in Keighley, Yorkshire, in 1920. His father was a bricklayer and his mother was a weaver. Tom had a happy childhood, spending his days playing cricket and football with his friends.

When Tom left school, he worked as a civil engineer. He later joined the army and served in India and Burma during the Second World War. After the war, Tom returned to England and worked as a manager for a concrete company.

A Fundraising Hero

In 2020, at the age of 99, Tom Moore set out to walk 100 laps of his garden to raise money for the NHS. He hoped to raise £1,000, but his efforts soon went viral and he ended up raising over £32 million.

Tom's fundraising efforts captured the hearts of the nation. He was awarded a knighthood by the Queen and was named the BBC's Sports Personality of the Year. He also published a book about his experiences, which became a bestseller.

A Life of Inspiration

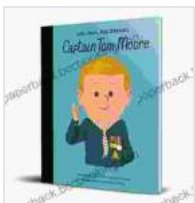

Captain Tom Moore was an extraordinary man who lived a life of service to others. His story is a reminder that anything is possible, no matter your age or background.

The Little People, BIG DREAMS biography of Captain Tom Moore is a beautifully illustrated and inspiring book that will appeal to children and adults alike. It is a must-read for anyone who wants to learn more about this remarkable man.
