

Democratic Economic Planning: A New Vision for the Economy

The current economic system is not working for the majority of people. It is a system that is based on greed and exploitation, and it is leading to a widening gap between the rich and the poor.

There is a better way. We need to create a new economic system that is based on democratic principles and that puts people and the environment first.

This book presents a vision for a new economic system, one that is based on the following principles:

- Democracy: The economy should be controlled by the people, not by corporations or the government.

- Equality: Everyone should have an equal opportunity to succeed in the economy.
- Sustainability: The economy should be sustainable, meaning that it does not damage the environment or deplete natural resources.

This book provides a roadmap for how we can achieve this new economic system. It is a must-read for anyone who is interested in creating a more just and sustainable world.
