Meet the Compelling Characters

Nell Stone: A brilliant and independent anthropologist determined to unlock the secrets of the elusive Stone Age tribe known as the Tambwo.

Andrew Bankson: A charismatic and ambitious photographer seeking fame and adventure.

Fen: A young Tambwo woman who bridges two worlds, torn between her loyalty to her people and her desire for knowledge.

A Journey into the Heart of the Our Book Library

As Nell, Andrew, and Fen venture deeper into the jungle, they encounter exotic wildlife, hostile tribes, and the remnants of a long-lost civilization. Their encounters challenge their beliefs, reveal their deepest desires, and ultimately shape their destinies.

Through powerful prose and vivid descriptions, King immerses readers in a breathtaking and perilous world. The characters' struggles, triumphs, and heartbreaks resonate deeply, leaving a lasting impact.

Themes that Resonate:

The Search for Identity: Each character grapples with questions of identity, belonging, and the boundaries between cultures.

The Power of Obsession: Nell's relentless pursuit of knowledge drives her to the brink, while Andrew's thirst for fame puts his relationships at risk.

The Fragility of Human Connections: Love, friendship, and trust are tested amidst the challenges of the jungle.

The Importance of Cultural Preservation: King sensitively explores the collision between Western anthropologists and indigenous cultures, highlighting the delicate balance between preservation and exploitation.

Awards and Recognition:

* Shortlisted for the Pulitzer Prize in Fiction * Recipient of the Kirkus Prize for Fiction * Listed on the New York Times Notable Books of the Year
