Synopsis

Imagine Me, Shatter Me is a gripping and heart-wrenching story that follows Juliette Ferrars, a seventeen-year-old girl who possesses a dangerous power: with a single touch, she can destroy anything she comes into contact with.

Juliette has been imprisoned by the Reestablishment, a ruthless government that fears her power and wants to exploit it. She is kept in isolation and undergoes constant torture in an attempt to control her ability.

However, everything changes when Juliette meets Adam Kent, a young man who is immune to her power. Adam shows Juliette kindness and compassion, and for the first time, she begins to feel like she is not a monster.

Juliette and Adam's relationship is forbidden, and the Reestablishment will do everything in their power to keep them apart. But Juliette and Adam are determined to find a way to be together, even if it means fighting against the entire world.
