WRITING

WRITING TASK 1

You should spend about 20 minutes on this task.

You recently bought a piece of equipment for your kitchen but it did not work. You phoned the shop but no action was taken.

Write a letter to the shop manager. In your letter

- describe the problem with the equipment
- explain what happened when you phoned the shop
- say what you would like the manager to do.

Write at least 150 words.

You do NOT need to write any addresses.

Begin your letter as follows:

Dear Sir or Madam,

The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) is a standardized English language proficiency test designed to assess the language abilities of non-native English speakers who intend to study or migrate to countries where English is the primary language of communication.

The IELTS Academic Writing Task is a crucial component of the IELTS Academic module, which is typically required for university admissions and professional registration in English-speaking countries. Achieving a high score in the IELTS Academic Writing Task is essential for success in your academic pursuits.

Effective Writing Techniques

Mastering effective writing techniques is paramount for success in the IELTS Academic Writing Task. Here are some key strategies:

- Task Analysis: Carefully analyze the task requirements, identify the main points, and plan your response accordingly.

- Idea Generation: Brainstorm a range of ideas and examples to support your arguments and claims.
- Paragraph Structure: Organize your essay into clear and coherent paragraphs, each with a topic sentence and supporting evidence.
- Cohesive Devices: Use cohesive devices such as transition words, conjunctions, and pronouns to connect and flow between ideas.
- Vocabulary Enhancement: Expand your vocabulary with academic and technical terms to demonstrate your linguistic proficiency.
- Grammar Accuracy: Pay attention to grammatical accuracy, including subject-verb agreement, tense consistency, and appropriate use of punctuation.

Authentic Examples and Analysis

To further enhance your understanding and writing skills, we will delve into authentic IELTS Academic Writing Task examples and analyze them in detail.

Task 1 Example:

- Describe the information presented in the line graph below.

Analysis:

- The line graph shows the population growth of two countries, A and B, from 2000 to 2020.
- Effective response: Identify the overall trend, describe the key features of each line, and highlight any significant changes or patterns.

Task 2 Example:

- Discuss the role of artificial intelligence (AI) in modern society.

Analysis:

- Consider the positive and negative impacts of AI, its ethical implications, and its potential impact on the future.
- Effective response: Present a balanced and well-reasoned argument, supported by specific examples and evidence.

Practice and Improvement

Regular practice is essential to improve your IELTS Academic Writing skills. Utilize the following strategies:

- Time Management: Practice writing within the allotted time frame of 60 minutes for Task 1 and 60 minutes for Task 2.
- Feedback Seeking: Share your writing with an experienced tutor, teacher, or native English speaker to receive feedback and identify areas for improvement.
- Self-Reflection: Analyze your own writing, identify strengths and weaknesses, and set goals for improvement.

Mastering IELTS Academic Writing is crucial for achieving your academic and professional goals. By understanding the task types, employing effective writing techniques, and engaging with authentic examples, you can develop the skills and confidence necessary to excel in the exam.
