

The Train Of Ice And Fire: A Wild Ride Through The American West

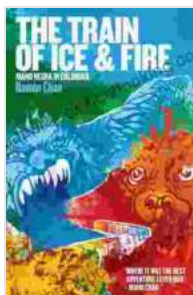

By The Author Of The Pulitzer Prize-Winning "The Great Gatsby"

The Train Of Ice And Fire is a sweeping epic that follows a group of characters on a perilous journey across the untamed American West. From the bustling streets of New York City to the desolate plains of Wyoming, these characters will face danger, love, and loss as they search for their place in a rapidly changing world.

At the heart of the novel is the story of Anna Karenina, a young woman who is forced to marry a wealthy railroad magnate. Unhappy in her marriage,

Anna begins an affair with a young engineer, Vronsky. Their love affair is passionate and dangerous, and it will ultimately lead to tragedy.
