Lady Diana Cooper was a renowned spiritualist and medium who dedicated her life to exploring the spiritual realm and sharing her insights with others. In her captivating autobiography, Trumpets From The Steep, she recounts her remarkable journey, offering a glimpse into the nature of consciousness, the afterlife, and the profound power of divine love.

Born into a privileged family in England, Lady Cooper had a deep interest in spirituality from a young age. She began her spiritual journey by attending séances and studying the works of renowned mediums. It was during these early experiences that she discovered her own psychic abilities, including the ability to communicate with spirits.

As Lady Cooper's psychic abilities developed, she became increasingly involved in spiritualism. She began giving séances and lectures, sharing her insights into the afterlife and the nature of the human soul. She also became a close confidante of many notable figures, including Winston Churchill and Mahatma Gandhi.

In Trumpets From The Steep, Lady Cooper recounts her experiences as a medium in vivid detail. She describes the process of communicating with spirits, the different types of spirits she encountered, and the lessons she learned about the afterlife. She also shares her insights into the nature of consciousness, the importance of love and compassion, and the profound power of divine guidance.

Trumpets From The Steep is a fascinating and inspiring read for anyone interested in spirituality, the afterlife, or the human soul. Lady Cooper's deep understanding of the spiritual realm and her compassionate nature shine through every page, offering a compelling exploration of the human experience and our connection to the divine.
